You had call from [REDACTED] but in interim he has called [REDACTED] and passed request to you through him. It is as follows:

STATINTL
STATINTL

Information should be available by 11:30 a.m., tomorrow, 18 March, to Dave so it can be included in the Noon pouch to Adm. Turner at EOB. He desires it for meeting with Secretary Brown tomorrow night. The requested information is as follows:

1. How many military billets are there?
2. How many will become available this summer?
3. Total list of all military billets by Service; when each individual in that billet reported for duty; and when he is expected to leave.

See background - IN Box

Also Dave would like a call from you on another matter he did not wish to have in writing.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Admiral Stansfield Turner
FROM : John F. Blake
Deputy Director for Administration

Sir:

1. The two attachments contain the information concerning the capability of the Intelligence Community Staff to bring aboard additional military personnel. This information has been developed in conjunction with that Staff.

2. Attachment #1 lists 13 positions. While only one, the last listed, is specifically identified for military occupancy, the ground rules with the Department of Defense are such that military officers may be used in any of the total positions listed. Attachment #2 lists, by service, the military personnel on duty with the Staff and gives indication of the total additional number that can be brought on duty.

3. As you may be aware, the size of the Intelligence Community Staff is a matter of current dispute between that Staff and the House Appropriations Committee. Until that dispute is resolved they have been given a moratorium on hiring any additional personnel. [REDACTED] can give you additional facts on this matter.

/s/ John F. Blake
